

ALL OUT OF STATE INSTITUTIONS OFFERING NURSING PROGRAMS IN ALABAMA

Nursing Programs offered by those out-of-state institutions that are not part of State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (SARA) are required to comply with Alabama law. Those that fail to register with the Alabama Commission on Higher Education (ACHE) and the Division of Licensure of the Alabama Community College System are not authorized to offer nursing programs or send students to Alabama for clinical activities. Alabama Board of Nursing (ABN) requirements are listed below:

SARA institutions are not required to register with ACHE, but must meet the ABN requirements.

Nursing: Pre-licensure

Any program offering a pre-licensure track (LPN, RN) in Alabama shall meet all requirements of Alabama law for pre-licensure programs as specified in Code of Alabama (1975) § 34-21-21, § 34-21-22, § 34-21-5 and ABN Administrative Code sections 610-X-3-.02, 610-X-3-.03, 610-X-3-.04, 610-X-3-.05, 610-X-3-.07. Attending programs that have met requirements as specified in Code of Alabama (1975) and ABN Administrative Code sections allows eligibility to sit for the national licensure examination required by Alabama Board of Nursing to enter practice as a licensed practical or registered nurse upon successful passage of the NCLEX®.

Nursing – Post-licensure

Any program offering advanced practice nursing degrees (CRNP, CRNA, CNS, CNM) to Alabama residents shall meet all requirements of Alabama law for advanced practice programs. Distance education programs offering advanced practice degrees, certifications, courses, preceptorial or clinical experiences must adhere to Code of Alabama (1975) and ABN Administrative Code sections 610-X-3-.03, 610-X-3-.04. Advanced practice applicants for approval in Alabama are required to meet Alabama requirements for national certification, graduation from a specific program type for advanced practice approval, and completion of the appropriate application. State approval of a program to offer Alabama licensed nurses' opportunities for advanced degrees does not indicate eligibility for approval as an advanced practice nurse in Alabama. www.abn.alabama.gov

Non-Resident Institutional Review

Under provisions of Ala. Code §16-5-10 (14) (1975), the Alabama Commission on Higher Education (ACHE) has jurisdiction over non-resident institutions, defined as postsecondary institutions or corporations offering educational programs in Alabama with main campuses or headquarters located outside the state.

Alabama is the only state within the United States where jurisdiction over private school licensure and programmatic review and approval of non-resident programs of higher education, postsecondary instruction, is divided between two (2) state agencies, the Alabama Department of Postsecondary Education and ACHE.

To facilitate these dual agency assignments of responsibility, a Memorandum of Agreement between the Alabama Community College System and ACHE provided for the integration of programmatic review of non-resident institutions with the licensure process. In addition, both ACHE and the Alabama Community College System serve as clearinghouses for information about private/proprietary institutions that offer their programs to Alabama residents.

Approval Process

In Alabama, approval to offer courses of instruction in residence, online, mail, or otherwise involves a 2-step process with 2 separate agencies, 1) Alabama Community College System (ACCS), and 2) Alabama Commission on Higher Education (ACHE). To apply with ACCS for a Private School License, please refer to the Guidelines for Policy to Obtain a Private School License as well as the online application. Required documents can be uploaded to the online application.
