

Power of an Equitable, Ethical & Engaging Alabama Nursing Workforce

A DCH Professional Development Program:
Helping You Advance Your Career through Education
Sponsored by: Clinical Development and Education

Date: June 6, 2025

Time: 0930-1300

Location: DCH Regional Medical Center Patio Grill

Program Faculty:

Kelly Rucker, J.D. esq., Bertha Hildago, PhD, MPH,
Wendi Parminter, D.Ph, MHA

Purpose of Program: Educate healthcare professionals on ethical and equitable practices to engage Alabama nurses.

Description of Program: Training on engagement of Alabama nurses while maintaining equitable and ethical practices.

Learner Objectives:

1. Discuss laws and regulations related to federally protected classes and their relationship to equity, ethics, and engagement
2. Explore the dynamics of navigating Equity in today's healthcare environment.
3. Discuss the increasing mental health crisis among nurses and simple solutions to maintain emotional wellness.

Target Audience: Alabama Healthcare Professionals

3.0 contact hours continuing education credit for nurses.

0 contact hours continuing education for pharmacy.

Must attend the entire education activity to be awarded contact hours.

To Register: Contact Wendi Parminter at:

Wendi.Parminter@dchsystem.com or call 205.759.7141

DCH Health system is an approved provider of continuing education by the Alabama Board of Nursing. Alabama Board of Nursing Provider Number: ABNP: 0015 valid through 09/19/2026

For questions or more detailed information, contact

Wendi.Parminter@dchsystem.com

There are no financial, professional, or personal conflicts of interests during this presentation. No cost to attend for DCH employees.

The participant will swipe their ABN license card at the class.

Bring your ABN CE card and ABN License Number

